Dear [INSERT CUSTOMER NAME]:

As we continue to experience frozen steamtray production challenges, we are issuing a DO NOT ORDER list of products that will be temporarily unavailable. The purpose of this list is to proactively advise customers about the unavailability of certain products and avoid unnecessary order cuts. These items will automatically be removed from any order and a notification will be sent one day after the order was received. At this time, these items are scheduled to remain on this list until the end of July 2022. The list of impacted products are as follows:
