

April 18, 2022

Valued Customer,

General Mills North America Foodservice is announcing an update to our plan for a temporary change to the packaging design for various SKUs within our 4oz Cup Yogurt portfolio. One additional SKU is listed in the table below, and the timing has been extended. This updated plan reflects our continued efforts to increase service reliability.

We will be temporarily moving from fully pre-printed lids with Yoplait® and Trix™ design elements, to generic or blank lids on the SKUs listed below.

The required nutritional information will remain on the fully printed cups, and the outer corrugate case will remain unchanged. These changes will be strictly cosmetic. There is no change to the product. There are no changes to the ingredient/nutrition panels, pallet dimensions, UPC, or pricing.

Product with updated packaging will begin flowing into the market immediately and will now continue through August 2022. We will provide additional updates as they are available.
