Re: Supply Issues & Allocations -- Updated

Dear Valued Customer:

We at Asian Food Solutions/Comida Vida take great pride in providing quality products and service to our many customers. Unfortunately we currently find ourselves in a position where we simply are not able to produce some of our SKUS. We are estimating that these items will be "Temporarily Unavailable" through October. Many of you may be experiencing this already. Plants are struggling to acquire raw material, staff production lines and meet increasing demand. We will continue to communicate as products become available once again. Please see the list of items below that will be "Temporarily Unavailable."

In some instances we will also need to allocate products based upon forecasts for original demand and inventory availability. Our customer service team will be working closely with all customers to notify you of any changes that may need to be made.

We value your business and apologize for any inconvenience during this challenging time.
