

That Beautiful Bean Co:

Dear Valued Customers –

Bush Brothers and Company has been impacted by heavy rains and flooding from Hurricane Helene at our East Tennessee facilities. While we have not experienced any direct flood damage, we have a number of employees displaced. Our shipping and production will be delayed this week, as we will be at reduced staffing. Staffing could also result in potential shortages to non-full pallet quantities, as we work to get as much volume shipped as possible with limited staff. Additionally, damage to area roads and interstates will impact the ability of our carrier network to pick up and deliver on time to your facilities. We will be working diligently to keep customer disruptions to a minimum, while ensuring the safety our employees and carrier partners.
